

Texas Journal of Oil, Gas, and Energy Law

A University of Texas School of Law Publication

International and Domestic Transactions:

Taxation, Compliance, and Everything You Need to Know to Close the Deal

Thursday, January 24, 2008

8:15 - 9:15	Breakfast
9:25 - 9:30	Symposium Opening Remarks
9:30 - 10:30	Shay Kuperman - The Basics of International Transactions
10:30 - 11:30	Bill Buck - US Legal Compliance in the Complex World of International Oil and Gas Transactions
11:30 - 12:45	Lunch
1:00 - 2:00	Brandon Seale - PEMEX's E&P Initiatives and Pipeline/Transmission Opportunities for U.S. Companies
2:00 - 3:00	Panel - Lessons Learned from International Transactions
3:00 - 4:00	John S. Dzienkowski - Energy Law Ethics

Friday, January 25, 2008

8:15 - 9:15	Breakfast
9:30 - 10:30	Michael S. Telle - Business Structures
10:30 - 11:30	Bob Peroni - The Prospects for Fundamental Tax Reform and Its Effects on the Energy Industry
11:30 - 12:30	Lunch
12:30 - 1:30	Pete Vermillion - Accommodation Doctrine, Trends Regarding Urban Drilling, and Surface Use Battles
1:30 - 2:45	Panel - Current Initiatives Fostering Energy Transactions Between Texas and Mexico
2:45 - 2:50	Symposium Closing Remarks

UTCLE

Free Admission, 9.25 CLE Credits – 8.25 hours CLE and 1 hours CLE Ethics

January 24-25, 2008 – UT School of Law - Eidman Courtroom

www.tjogel.org